

PRESS RELEASE

Grégoire Bordier Named as New Chairman of the Association of Swiss Private Banks

Geneva, June 9, 2021 – Grégoire Bordier, Managing Partner with unlimited personal liability at Bordier & Cie, has been named Chairman of the Association of Swiss Private Banks. The ASPB expects to benefit greatly from the experience and support of this energetic and forward-looking individual.

The Association of Swiss Private Banks is pleased to announce the nomination of Grégoire Bordier as its new Chairman, taking effect on June 15, 2021. This change in the leadership of the ASPB was decided today at the annual general meeting occurs at the end of Yves Mirabaud's second term as President of the Association.

As Managing Partner with unlimited personal liability at Bordier & Cie, one of the remaining five Swiss Private Bankers, present in the cantons of Geneva, Vaud, Berne and Zurich, but also in France, in the United Kingdom, in Singapore and in Uruguay, Grégoire Bordier has the ideal experience to help the ASPB and its members continue to play an active role in defending the interests of the industry, both domestically and internationally.

The Swiss Private Banks would like to thank Yves Mirabaud, Senior Partner of the Mirabaud Group, for his unwavering commitment over the past six years, which have been marked by numerous regulatory changes in the field of asset and wealth management.

The Association of Swiss Private Banks presented the main challenges faced by its members in its annual report, published end of May 2021 (available at this link). Please note that Grégoire Bordier and Jan Langlo are available for interviews and will be happy to answer any questions you may have.

Press contact Jan Langlo
T +41(0)22 807 08 00
E-mail langlo@abps.ch